Allowance

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on November 17, 2010 has been entered.
2. The RCE adds claims 53-68. These are system claims that mirror the method claims previously indicated as allowable.
3. The BPAI mailed a decision on June 18, 2010, affirming the Examiner-in-part.
4. Claims 29-52 are allowable as amended August 9, 2010. The 101 rejections upheld by the BPAI have been overcome by the amendments. Small additional clarifying amendments were also made. The RCE filed November 17, 2010 adds system claims 53-68, which mirror these methods claims. Therefore, Claims 29-68 are allowable.

Reasons for Allowance

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art made of record does not teach, make obvious, or suggest the claim limitations use the query breadth, the number of results returned by a query in the past, of a query that returned a particular result to impact the ranking of that particular result. A less precise query, with more results, does not help the ranking of the particular result as much as being included in a smaller result set. Examiner believes the closest art was applied in the prior rejections and the BPAI decided that the combination did not make the claims obvious. Therefore, this combination of elements as described in the claim language is allowable over the prior art.

The dependent claims, being further limiting to the independent claims, definite and enabled by the Specification are also allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
